"Sweet Adoline . . ."

The Advisory Assembly, the student body lawmaking organization, is composed of representatives and their alternates from the sophomore English classes, the junior history classes, and the senior civics classes. McLane's student body vice president is the presiding officer. If the vice president is not present at the meeting, a speaker pro-tempre, selected by the assembly, serves as chairman. At joint meetings of the Executive Council and the Advisory Assembly, the student body president presides. This group deserves a vote of confidence for its work in keeping justice at McLane.
