

Social Science

Democracy is the most valued principle in our society; therefore the Social Science Department tries to better acquaint each student with its meaning and value.

